Health-Related Social Needs (HRSN)

Priority Populations are often disproportionately affected.

Supportive Services Addressing HRSN

- Permanent Supportive Housing (PSH) Services
- Justice-Involved Re-Entry Services
- Case Management: Connection to community resources to address food insecurities, education, and job training

Discussion

- What priority populations do you serve?
- What HRSN issues do these populations face?
- How are you working to address gaps in services?

Expanding the Use of Unlicensed Service Providers

HRSN delivered in a community setting, commonly delivered by unlicensed professionals

- Peer Support Services
- Community Health Workers (CHWs)
- Other types of unlicensed staff?

Medicaid Reimbursement for Other Types of Community Organizations

Community organizations, such as:

- Permanent Supportive Housing (PSH) providers
- Peer Support Organizations

Discussion

- What feedback do you have?
- What barriers do you see to engaging this unlicensed workforce?
