Slide 22: Medicaid Works in Progress

- You can learn more about the Statewide Supportive Housing Expansion \(SWSHE\) Pilot Project on the HCPF's website.
- Here is a link to our Safety Net Provider page where we will provide information about upcoming safety net training and technical assistance opportunities.
- HCPF is inviting providers and other stakeholders to attend a webinar on March 1, 2024 to hear updates to the coverage policy mandated by SB23-174. This will be our final community presentation before we move toward implementation of this coverage policy for July 1, 2024. Please register in advance. More information about this initiative can be found on HCPF's Senate Bill 23-174: Coverage Policy site.
- You can visit HCPF's Health First Colorado and Criminal Justice Involved Populations site to learn more about the work we are doing and to learn how to join the HCPF Criminal Justice Collaborative kick-off meeting scheduled for tomorrow.

Slide 23: Value Based Payment for BH Safety Net Providers

- The best way to stay engaged with HCPF on value-based payment work is to register for HCPF's Behavioral Health Safety Net Forum. Here is a link to our Safety Net Provider page, <https://hcpf.colorado.gov/safetynetproviders> which has a registration link at the top right.
- Additionally, HCPF and the BHA are accepting applications for the Auditing and Accounting Guidelines Committee (A&A Committee). A&A Committee members will be from a variety of interested parties, and will provide crucial feedback relating to what is and is not allowed in the cost reporting process, which impacts PPS rate setting. Please find the application here. We hope you or someone from your organization will consider applying. Also, please feel free to share the application with others.
